

Jamie B. Myer

1427 East 4th. Street #11B
Los Angeles, California 90033
www.techdef.org
j-me@techdef.org 310-714-4288

Work History

May 2001 - Present

Independent Architectural Design and Rendering

Modeled and rendered presentation drawings for restoration of a historic theater.
Designed art program elements and public internet kiosks for a shopping mall.
Created concept and presentation materials for a museum facelift.

August 2000 - May 2001

SCI-Arc

Designed and implemented wayfinding graphics for temporary SCI-Arc facilities.
Teaching Assistant for Visual Studies Department: 3D animation, modeling and rendering.

May 1999 - September 2000

Suisman Urban Design

Junior Designer following several projects from start to finish, including:
MTA MetroRapid station-stops and bus graphics, CRA/LA Grand Avenue Master Plan, Hollywood Media BID, Grand Central Market Court and a private residence addition.

May 1997 - August 1998

Ocean Way Recording

Assistant Engineer working with high-profile rock bands to record albums.
Oversaw technical requirements for sessions, placement and maintenance of recording gear.
Responsible for clients' needs and communication between producers and record labels.

Awards

March 2001

AIA/LA Ninth Annual Student Design Charette

First Place Award

May 1997

Center for Arts and Technology at Connecticut College

Certificate of Graduation with Honors

Related Skills

Drawing

Skills range from perspective construction to computer modeling and rendering.
Specialties in photo manipulation, compositing, typography and output.

Modeling

Have many years of shop experience, from lutherie to model railroading.
Familiar with scale architectural modeling in most mediums.

Computer Skills

2D

After Effects, Illustrator, InDesign, Photoshop, Quark.

3D

FormZ, Maya, Poser, Strata3D.

Education

January 2002

Southern California Institute of Architecture (SCI-Arc)

Master of Architecture

Thesis Project "Working Live Work."

May 1997

Connecticut College

Bachelor of the Arts

Major in Cognitive Linguistics. Minor in Art.

Personal History

Summer 1995

Cultural Trip to Russia

Spent eight weeks in St. Petersburg learning the Russian language and culture.
Extensive sightseeing including outlying towns, Moscow and the Hermitage Museum.

1993 - Present

Sailboat Restoration and Racing

Spent two years restoring a 1947 Thistle Class boat from sunken to successfully racing.
Also raced competitively with several other one-design fleets.